Year	Event	Browser	Key Feature	Impact
1990	First Web Browser	WorldWideWeb (Nexus)	Text-based interface	Established the foundation for the web
1991	Wider Accessibility	Line Mode Browser	Text-based for older terminals	Allowed access beyond specialized computers
1993	Graphical Revolution	Mosaic	First graphical browser with images	Made the web more user-friendly and appealing
1994	Browser Wars Begin	Netscape Navigator	User-friendly interface with bookmarks, back/forward buttons	Set the standard for future browsers
1995	Competition Heats Up	Internet Explorer (bundled with Windows)	Gained market share through strategic bundling	Fueled rapid development in the browser wars
Late 1990s-Early 2000s	Browser Wars Intensify	Netscape Navigator vs. Internet Explorer	Advancements in speed, security, multimedia, and scripting	Shaped the core functionalities of modern browsers
2004	Open Source Challenge	Firefox	Focus on open-source development and privacy	Provided a strong alternative to Internet Explorer
2008	Chrome Emerges	Google Chrome	Speed, simplicity, and integration with Google services	Quickly gained popularity and became the market leader
Present Day	Diverse Landscape	Chrome, Firefox, Safari, Edge, Opera	Continued innovation in features like tabbed browsing, secure connections, and web app integration	Provides users with a variety of options based on their needs